Now that the dust has settled I would like to extend my personal thanks to you for the assistance leading up to the visit of Frank Carlucci to his alma mater on Oct. 13.

Needless to say, fellow alumnus as well as the school administration and staff, headed by the man we were honoring, Dr. Wallace F. Stettler, were all pleased to have Mr. Carlucci on campus again.

I am sure by this time you have sensed a feeling of pride from those associated with Wyoming Seminary. We are very proud of our school system and our graduates, many of whom have reached positions of high honor on the national and international scene.

It is in this regard that I bring to your attention the following for your consideration:

In Mr. Carlucci's biography, after, "A native of Scranton, Pa., Mr. Carlucci....." Hopefully, you can add the following: "Mr. Carlucci, graduated from Wyoming Seminary, a Kingston, Pa., college preparatory school....."

Under the list of awards, the following is suggested: "Wyoming Seminary's Distinguished Service Award, 1973"

As mentioned previously, Wyoming Seminary is proud of Mr. Carlucci and the thousands of others who matriculated to colleges and to positions of prominence.

My invitation to visit us is still open. As an introduction I am sending you our recent Alumni Journal for your perusal.

Sincerely,

Dan Koze
Public Relations Director

Remarks:  Attached is a letter I received from the Public Affairs man at Wyoming Seminary after Mr. Carlucci's trip on the 13th. You will note he has some suggestions for additions to Mr. Carlucci's biography, so I'm passing it on to you for possible action.  I kept a copy of the letter in my files.  Tks.
